TURF POLITICS INJURE RACING.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 15.—There are smart doing in racing politics here. They come out of the special meeting of the Turf Congress. At today's meeting Washington Park and Newport were admitted to membership. Harlem was re-fused membership. Col. L. M. Clark is the Har-lem representative. Ed. Corrigan directed the Washington Park's general position is perplex-og. Both its vote and Newport's were against Harlem. Washington Park and Newport caused the failure of a two-thirds vote. Objection was raised to their voting. The matter is still under decision.

At the night session Harlem's rejection was confirmed. Temperate racing men, who recognize the general injury to western horse interests by such action, incline to the idea that a rejection of the Turf Congress is the next thing in order.

PETITE STARES ENTRIES.

While the Harlem Stakes for the fall drew a small number of entries, they drew live entries, high-class entries and entries likely to be seen at the post. Here is a sample over the Petite Stakes, $1200, 2-year-old fillies. Five furlongs.

Burns & Waterhouse, Napamax. by Maxim— Napa, and Miss Rowena, by Midlothian—Paloma; Benson, Arthur & Co., Mary Will, by Pon-tico-Mary W; E. Fitzgerald, Miss Gussie. by Chorister-Katona; H. P. THE WESTERN RACING SITUATION.

There are occasional bits of incandescent print about Chicago racing of the future. They contain suggestions about terms of fifteen days per track for future Chicago racing. What bosh! Under adverse circumstances Chicago racing is doing well. It is the only healthy American racing outside the New York district. Chicago business is gaining health by its action. The merchants of Chicago can be asked for information on this point. The Chicago racing revival has been a keen stimulant to the horse interests of the western states. Sales prices are bright signs of the revival. Why seek to hamper and cripple a broad and healthy in-dustry by narrow rules growing out of person-ality? Chicago has three noble race tracks. Racing is healthy and timely for five or six summer months. Chicago enjoys the sport for such a term. The proper and legal regulation of Chicago racing will provide for some 160 days use of the tracks in and about Chicago. The scope of turf legislation—along the lines of American law-should be limited to the assignnt of dates for the Chicago racing district. Turf legislation, so far as Chicago is concerned, is at present within the authority of the Western Turf Congress. The Congress is representative and able to legislate wisely — for all — if will. If it does not a new Western turf it will. through it, to regulate turf matters so that all interests can be wisely and reasonably considered and regulated. It is to be hoped that a conflict of Western authority in turf matters will not be necessary. Such a conflict is not probable, though it is possible

Winner—B. c, by Magnetizer—Decoy.
Start good. Won easily. Demagogue was best. He likes this track. Salabar lacked speed first part but closed strong at end. He doesn't love weight. Fonsavannah ran well. He looked to be sure of second place, but stopped badly last furlong. Mont d'Or finished strong and favors mud. Ortonan ran well for him, but belongs elsewhere. Rose in Hand could not run in first part and evidently disliked the going. Hairpin was the best of the Dwyer pair. Torii was badly outclassed. Midian had no speed at all.
Scratched—Oxnard, 113; Fleeting Gold. 108; Babieca, 113; Hardly, 108.

Winner—B. c, 4, by Pirate of Penzance—Song.
Start good. Won driving. Rondo was the best at the weights. He lost on the stretch turn and suffered from crowding on the first. He was best. Howard Mann was also unlucky and appeared to be pocketed at the critical moment around the half-mile ground. Bernardillo was waited with and ran a fine race in consequence. He came at the end like a gladiator. Prim and Kanvar were badly shut off and bumped on first turn. Kauvar made his run too soon and looked promising. But weight stopped him. Prim got a bad ride. Libertine and Yankee Doodle effectively settled each other by pacemaking. Cromwell was out of it from the start.

Scratched—Peep O'Day, 122.

Winner—B. g, 4, by Jim Gore—Nannie D
Start good. Won pulled to a walk. Peat played with his field. It was the easiest win this year. Ramiro looked promising at the half, but was smothered at the end Ramiro likes mud. This race will improve him. Good Times, favored throughout, is not of much account just now, except in the mud. Sunup was badly jostled on the turn and was carried out. He finished fast. Lazzarone appeared to be far removed from racing condition.

Scratched—Yankee Doodle, 109; Hanlon, 106.
Overweights—Sunup, 2 pounds; Nana H, 3; Peat, 1.

Winner—Ch. c, 4, by Punster—Spray.
Post 12 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second, third and fourth driving hard. Lew Hopper ran a greatly improved race. He was perfectly handled, though, while Trilby and Cochina were raced to pieces in the face of the strong wind down the back stretch. Lew Hopper is a moody horse. He cannot stand trouble but is extremely game. Sloan was hit in the eye by a flying dirt clock, therefore Hopper won on his own courage. Trilby was raced without blinkers and did not try to run out. Her performance was to the notch. Dolan made his run too soon with Elsie Ferguson. The filly ran a cracking good race. So did Golightly. Four pounds overweight was probably too much for Miss C. Cochina showed some speed.

Post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second and third also hard at it. Graziella ran a game race—She hung to, and raced Fair—Deceiver into the ground the first half and then stalled Pinar del Rio's rush off in gallant style. Fair Deceiver cannot stand trouble. She was wabbling all over at the finish. Pinar del Rio is a good filly and likes a route. She finished very strong. Gnome showed some speed. So did Lammermoor. The latter is a big, fine looking filly.

Post 8 minutes. Start good. The first five were all driving. Milwaukee ran the best race. He was in a pocket and had to pull up and go around the field on the far turn. It was a clever piece of riding on Burns' part. Souffle acted sore at the post and did not run anywhere near her mark. Thurston showed some of his old-time form. With clear sailing he might have won. Caywood got him sharply cut off above the half mile ground. Metairie made up a lot of ground in the last three furlongs. Swordsman tired badly when collared. Martha R was bumped and had to be pulled up at the head of the stretch. Covington, Ky, showed a flash of speed.
